A warm welcome to WORKTECH Toronto 2024

WORKTECH is the fastest growing forum for all those involved in the future of work and the workplace as well as real estate, technology and innovation.

Never before has the workplace, and the way we work been so high on the agenda for organisations. As we make the great return to the office, how can organisations build engaging workplace experiences and cultures for their people?

You are invited to join 100+ senior professionals from real estate, facilities, HR, technology, executive management, architecture, design and professional advisors to listen to global thought leaders, and share best practice and expertise.

The conference will be run in one stream, which means our delegates will get to attend every speaker presentation. We will also have a curated innovation exhibition happening in the breakout areas for attendees to meet with our education partners, complementing learning throughout the day, as well as three networking breaks, creating time for attendees to meet the other participants

We hope you can join us and we are looking forward to welcoming you to the event on October 17th.

Warmest regards,
Sophie

SESSION HIGHLIGHTS

The future of work and the workplace is on everyone's agenda. This event brings thought leaders together to share cutting edge ideas on the future, from the perspectives of people, place and technology. It will allow an understanding of the key drivers of change and enablers of innovation that will shape how, where and when work takes place.

Key themes we will be discussing at this event include:

The New World of Work: Challenges & Emerging Trends

The past few years have provoked the re-shaping and rethinking of the new world of work. We examine what's on the horizon for the future of work, looking at how business leaders should respond and what they should prioritize in the months ahead.

Data-Driven Workplace Strategies and Transformations

Is your organization using the right tools and metrics to influence innovations in workplace strategy? We explore how identifying and utilising the most pertinent data sets can help take actions which result in more productive, engaged and motivated team members. Hear examples of data-driven cultures as well as new technologies and innovations helping leading organizations deliver best workplace practice in the GTA as well as further afield.

Sustainable Futures: Rethinking Work, Architecture and Design

In the wake of the global pandemic, we have accelerated shifts in our understanding of how we work, where we work, and the impact of our work on the planet. These sessions explore the pivotal challenges and opportunities that lie ahead as we envision a more sustainable, resilient, and purpose-driven future.

WORKPLACE TOURS

WEDNESDAY 16TH OCTOBER

As a delegate, you will have the opportunity to gain access to exclusive, behind-the-scenes tours of some of Toronto's most cutting-edge workspaces. These will be held the day before the conference on Wednesday 16th October. Please note that spaces for these exclusive tours are extremely limited, subject to availability and available exclusively to registered conference delegates. To secure your conference pass, book here now.

BMO PLACE TOUR:

BMO transformed a former department store in the CF Toronto Eaton Centre into a state-of-the-art workplace, learning hub, and event venue in the core of the city.

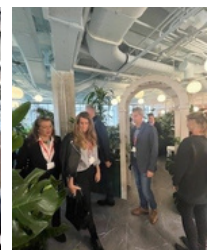

This innovative space consolidates over 3,000 employees on expansive floorplates by providing open access throughout the building. BMO repurposed existing escalators to encourage collaboration across all floors, built two 100-foot-high atriums for natural daylight, and incorporated top-tier accessibility measures.

The revitalized environment is already reshaping the work experience for BMO's staff, aligning with the bank's core objective of establishing a digitally enabled, future-ready, collaborative, and inclusive workplace.

We are pleased to announce that BMO's Director of CRE Data & Analytics, Jeff Tso, will be joining the line-up at WORKTECH Toronto on 17th October.

THE NEW WORLD OF WORK: CHALLENGES & EMERGING TRENDS

The past few years have provoked the re-shaping and re-thinking of the new world of work. We examine what's on the horizon for the future of work, looking at how business leaders should respond and what should they prioritise in the months ahead?

09:15 | POWERING-UP EMPLOYEES: NAVIGATING ENGAGEMENT, WELLBEING, AND PRODUCTIVITY IN THE MODERN WORKPLACE

Professor John Trougakos, Scarborough
Department of Management & Rotman
School of Management, University of Toronto

In this cutting-edge session, Professor John Trougakos from the University of Toronto presents strategies to leverage empowerment, enabling employees to transform burnout into sustained productivity. Drawing from new research, this presentation explores the critical challenges facing employees today, including emotional exhaustion, varying job demands, and the impact of hybrid, remote, and reduced-hour work models. Employers will gain practical tools and actionable insights to enhance engagement, productivity, and overall wellbeing. Join us to navigate the complexities of the modern workplace and foster a balanced, productive, and purposeful work environment.

09:40 | ITERATION TO EXCELLENCE: HOW PROTOTYPING, DATA AND AI CAN LEAD TO SUCCESS IN HYBRID DESIGN

Kristopher Banner, Director of Real Estate
& Construction, ATB Financial

In this case study of a workplace pilot, Kristopher shares how a flexible approach to hybrid design has created opportunities for optimization and downsizing at ATB Financial. Mapping out human behaviour is challenging. Layer in the complexities of work and it can feel almost impossible. By utilizing smart data sets, AI assistance in analytics and agile prototyping, you can create award winning spaces.

This session will share how:

- AI needs to be added to any space planners toolbox
- Not all feedback is actionable, you need to weed through the noise
- Human scale design still requires humans

10:05 | KEYNOTE SESSION

THEME: DATA-DRIVEN WORKPLACE STRATEGIES AND TRANSFORMATIONS

Is your organisation using the right tools and metrics to influence innovations in workplace strategy? We explore how identifying and utilising the most pertinent data sets can help take actions which result in more productive, engaged and motivated team members. Hear examples of data-driven cultures as well as new technologies and innovations helping leading organisations deliver best workplace practice in the GTA as well as further afield.

10:55 | TECH HORIZONS: TRENDS AND INSIGHTS IN WORKPLACE TECHNOLOGY

Jeff Tso, Director, CRE Data & Analytics, BMO
Rajesh Ray, Director, CRE Tech, RBC
Wayne Liko, Managing Partner, Horizant
Plus other panellists to be announced

This panel discussion will explore the latest trends in technology innovation, based on the launch of the 2024 WORKTECH Guides to Workplace Technology. We unveil the latest insights and advancements businesses can anticipate, offering a glimpse into how these transformative technologies will revolutionize both work and workplace dynamics across five key industry sectors: visitor management, booking systems, sensors, workplace apps and experience tech.

11:25 | SMART SPACES, SMARTER DECISIONS: LEVERAGING WORKPLACE INTELLIGENCE FOR HYBRID SUCCESS

Ali Stewart, Director of Client Success, OfficeSpace Software
Plus client speaker to be announced

This session explores the role that workplace intelligence plays in re-imagining hybrid work, understanding the employee experience, and making confident real estate decisions. We'll examine how organizations balance presence data with evolving employee needs to optimize their work environments. We'll show how benchmarking and industry trends support presence data as the key to making strategic hybrid decisions. Attendees will gain insights into creating efficient, supportive spaces that align organizational goals with employee satisfaction, ensuring a workplace that is adaptable for the future.

11:45 | DESIGNING AN INCLUSIVE WORKPLACE ECOSYSTEM: A DATA-DRIVEN DEEP DIVE INTO TD BANK'S INTERCONNECTED DIVERSITY, INCLUSION AND EQUITY STRATEGY

Yasmien Fadl, AVP, Head of Workplace Design & Experience, TD Bank
Jennifer Amankwa, Diversity & Inclusion Partner, TD Bank

Join Yasmien and Jennifer as they explore how TD Bank is setting the standard for inclusivity through a data-driven, interconnected DEI strategy. This session offers a comprehensive overview of how DEI is institutionalized across TD Bank's built environments, experience strategies (digital and physical), and talent approaches. Gain valuable insights into the challenges they've faced, the successes they've achieved, and the opportunities that lie ahead.

Key takeaways:

- Institutionalize intentionality in DEI strategies
- Deliver consistent and equitable experiences
- Unify HR, Design, Digital, and Diversity efforts to create a truly inclusive ecosystem

13:25 | THINK TANK SESSIONS

An interactive and collaborative session for delegates to come together to discuss and share insights from the day's presentations, while also providing an opportunity for networking and socializing. Delegates are divided into small, diverse groups to encourage a rich mix of perspectives. Each group is given a specific topic related to the day's themes and/or to local issues here in Toronto, with participants taking turns sharing insights, reflections, and opinions on the topic. Each group has a pre-assigned representative to present a brief summary back to the audience, highlighting viewpoints and insights that emerged.

GETTING TO NET ZERO: THE ESG IMPERATIVE IN REAL ESTATE

With Canada accelerating its efforts toward Net Zero, the impact on real estate and workplaces cannot be overstated. From energy-efficient building designs to green certifications and beyond, how can companies lead the charge in transforming their spaces to meet Net Zero targets? What challenges and opportunities do these shifts present for the workplace of the future?

NAVIGATING COMMUTER CHAOS: THE TRANSIT DILEMMA

As Toronto grapples with the challenges of high construction volumes, transit delays, and insufficient routes, the issue of commuter accessibility has become a critical concern for organizations. Let's examine the ongoing 'commuter chaos' in the city, exploring its impact on the return to office and workplace dynamics. How are businesses and city planners addressing these challenges? Can technology and policy changes ease the burden on commuters and make the daily journey to work more manageable?

TALENT OF THE FUTURE: THE NEW EMPLOYEE VALUE PROPOSITION

Let us delve into strategies for attracting, retaining, and harnessing the potential of tomorrow's workforce. What innovative approaches can be leveraged to enhance culture and bridge organizational needs with the aspirations of the next generation of employees?

OUR VENUE

ONTARIO TEACHERS' PENSION PLAN, DOWNTOWN TORONTO

Over the years, WORKTECH events have taken place in frontier-shifting buildings, where conference delegates benefit from exclusive behind-the-scenes access to innovative workplaces.

In 2024 WORKTECH Toronto will be held at Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan, 160 Front St, Toronto. 160 Front St. West is a culmination of a multi-year project to create a workspace focused on sustainability, flexibility, inclusivity and well-being.

We are pleased to announce that George Konidis, OTPP's Managing Director, Real Estate & Workplace Transformation, will be joining the line-up at WORKTECH Toronto on 17th October:

"We wanted to make sure our offices reflect innovation, inclusivity and insightfulness for both current and future employees. To do so, we took a holistic approach to creating an optimal environment for our employees with the notion of connecting people, space and technology to act synchronously as one.

The emphasis on flexibility and choice in work styles stand out as one of the building's key features. The building's design is based on a global workplace strategy with the goal of enhancing the employee experience and attracting top talent. With that in mind, they designed the workspaces at 160 Front St. W. to be highly adaptable, offering options to meet both individual and team needs — and recognizing that those needs may change from person to person and from day to day depending on the tasks at hand."
